

STAGE ONE

8.30-9.00
BREAKFAST AND NETWORKING

Don't forget, we're trying to avoid the usual suit and tie, so feel free to come in jeans and relax while you tuck into our sustainable breakfast options and read your recyclable delegate pack

9.00-9.20
LET YOUR IDEAS TAKE FLIGHT

Some early morning catharsis and team building for you – get stuck into the first activity of the day. Air your pet hates and, quite literally, scatter them to the four winds

9.20-9.30
WHAT'S OUR PLAN FOR THE DAY?

Don't worry, we won't spend too much time telling you about the fire escape – we'll be bringing you up to speed on key activities so you can get the most out of TEI
Briefing TEI is chaired by our dynamic duo: Laura Kind, global head of culture and change, Hogan Lovells and Richard Brent, editor-in-chief, Briefing

9.30-9.50
DATA IN ACTION

Kris Jones, head of data engineering, Dyson

9.50-10.10
THE FUTURE OF ROBOTIC PROCESS AUTOMATION

A senior representative from Blue Prism

10.10-10.25
NEXT STEPS IN CYBERSECURITY – AN EXPERIENTIAL SESSION

Sam Robshaw, senior cyber security technical manager, BlackBerry

10.25-10.55
COFFEE AND BISCUITS

Connect with a new network and check out some startups. And if you don't eat all the biscuits don't worry – all leftover cold food is donated locally to reduce food waste

10.55-11.15
WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD? PERSPECTIVES FROM A MULTINATIONAL

A senior representative from Oracle

STAGE TWO

11.20-12.40
DIVIDE AND CONQUER – SPEED LEARNING SESSIONS

Smash up your firm's team and go along to as many different sessions as possible, so you leave clued-up on the latest know-how

11.20-11.30

SESSION 1.1 - It's not all about shiny new tech - how process improvement can be the innovation firms really need
David Huston, business process architect, DLA Piper

11.20-11.30

SESSION 1.2 - How She Breaks the Law is disrupting the status quo
Priya Lele, legal process design lead, UK, US & EMEA, Herbert Smith Freehills and co-founder, She Breaks the Law

11.35-11.50

SESSION 2.1 - Transformation at MediaCom – lessons learned from another sector
Sue Unerman, chief transformation officer, MediaCom

11.50-11.55

SESSION 3.1
Sam Nicholls, head of business development, Intelligent Office

12.00-12.20

SESSION 4.1 - Client collaboration
A senior representative from Thomson Reuters

12.00-12.20

SESSION 4.2 - Get to grips with the transformational process of establishing consistent service globally for your clients
Megan Dunford, director, strategic initiatives, Western Union

12.20-12.35

SESSION 5.1 - Understanding the data in your firm
Mirko Bernardoni, head of data science, Clifford Chance

12.20-12.35

SESSION 5.2
Case study speaker from Introhive to be confirmed

STAGE THREE

12.20-12.35
LUNCH AND ACTIVITIES

Enjoy a sustainability, ethically sourcing and food waste-managed lunch, partake in some alternative learning activities focused on building wellness in your firm and ensure you leave TEI refreshed and ready to kick-start change, all supported by Mindfulness in the Workplace

13.35-14.10

THE DEBATE – NO LAWYER EVER NEEDS TO KNOW HOW TO CODE

You, the audience, will get to decide who has won the debate at the end of this session
Shilpa Bhandarkar, head of innovation, Linklaters
Ashleen Burrage, senior lawyer, commercial banking legal, Lloyds Banking Group
Rob Goldsmith, deputy general counsel, Ferguson Enterprises
Jenny Hotchin, group innovation manager, Pinsent Masons
Andrew Keith, chief operations office, DAC Beachcroft

14.10-14.25

SPEEDY COFFEE AND BISCUITS

STAGE FOUR

14.25-15.50
DESIGN THINKING MASTERCLASS

Roll up your sleeves and get stuck into our design thinking masterclass. Learn the theory and how to apply this in your firm in stage one, then take part in a design sprint alongside your peers in stage two

15.50-16.15

INMARSAT'S JOURNEY – SATELLITES, SPACE AND BEYOND

Inmarsat turned 40 in 2019, marking four decades of innovation, partnerships and saving lives. From its inception as a United Nations organisation, at the initiative of the International Maritime Organization, the company has transformed and innovated to become the leading provider of global mobile satellite communications – hear what the future has in store
Christian Fahey, VP of legal affairs, Inmarsat

16.15 onwards
DRINKS (AND WRAP-UP)

Agenda subject to change